During the celebration, the General Manager of the Company, Mr Adeshina Adegoke, in his remarks appreciated FOBTOB Members from other branches present at the occasion to celebrate with the President on his birthday which was a demonstration of love in the Association. He commended the past and current FOBTOB Executives and Members of Intercontinental Distillers Limited Branch, and added that, the Association was his constituency because he spent three to four years at the National Union of Food Beverage and Tobacco Employees (NUFBTE), and he also spent five years at FOBTOB before he became a

Manager. The leadership style he displayed during all industrial relations, negotiations and administration, cannot be over emphasised. He further explained that over the past few decades, Comrade Jimoh Oyibo had always been consistent, upright, and truthful. Before his emergence as the President of FOBTOB, people knew he would never compromise because he is a fair and just personality and advised to keep up the good personality and never deviate. Mr. Adeshina noted that a position is not held forever, it is what one does that history remembers. He prayed that history remembers him for good, and that the President grow in wisdom, good health, and sound mind. The Deputy General Secretary, Comrade Jumoke Oladimeji applauded the celebrant and noted that the National President at his age is vibrantly energetic during a walk exercise. She said that in the struggle, he was always of the opinion that Trade Unionism was not meant for a person with arthritis. In addition, she explained that the positivity
